

Our featured Breathe Again Magazine's You Go Girl for the month of May is Sharvette Mitchell of Richmond, Virginia. We are pleased to assist Sharvette in getting the word out about her business.

Name: Sharvette Mitchell

Resides: Sharvette currently resides in Richmond, Virginia.

Hobbies: Web design, talk radio and shopping!

Reason for joining the Friendz Network: To gain exposure for my Radio Show and Web Design Company.

Bio: Sharvette Mitchell is the owner of Mitchell Productions, LLC, a company created to provide economical and stylish online marketing solutions. As the owner and designer, Sharvette creates effective websites and email marketing tools that assist ministries, non-profits, small businesses, authors and artists with showcasing their organization or products and services to the world! Remember: A website is a necessity... not a luxury. Sharvette's goal is to enable your website to push your products or service to the next level. Sharvette's degree in Marketing from Virginia Commonwealth University and her natural creative flair makes the web design process fun and efficient. Mitchell Productions, LLC also provides facilitation and guest speaker services for conferences and seminars.

On a weekly basis Sharvette can be heard live on "The Sharvette Mitchell Radio Show" which broadcasts on www.BlogTalkRadio.com/Mitchell-Productions, a leading internet radio station. The goal of her show is to motivate, excite and influence. She has had the opportunity to interview guests such as Bern Nadette Stanis - Thelma from Good Times, Daphne Maxwell Reid - Aunt Viv from Fresh Prince of Bel-air, Grammy Award winning songwriter Harold Lilly, Stellar Award winning artist Minister Isaiah D. Thomas and many more.

In addition to Mitchell Productions, LLC and The Sharvette Mitchell Radio Show, Sharvette has been employed with Capital One Financial Services for 15 years. Her current role as a Learning Consultant in the Corporate Compliance division allows her to work with various associates in the area of training and development and project/process management.

In her spare time, she volunteers at New Jerusalem International Christian Ministries, under the leadership of Chief Apostle Olive C. Brown and Bishop Joel V. Brown as the lead Ministry Affairs Coordinator. In this role, she oversees 16 different Ministry Leaders who are responsible for all of the ministries in the church. She approves programs and events and provides consultation on marketing the individual ministries.

The combination of Sharvette's corporate life and volunteerism help to strengthen her consultation on website projects and brings a dynamic energy to her radio show.

About Mitchell Products, LLC: Mitchell Productions designs websites that cater to small businesses, ministries, non-profits, authors, artists, and events. Let us create a web presence that will connect you to your customers or members. Remember... a website is not a luxury it is a necessity! Your customers or members EXPECT you to have a web presence. Let Mitchell Productions add value to your organization by enhancing your online marketing.

"The Sharvette Mitchell Radio Show"- The Sharvette Mitchell Radio Show, brought to you by Mitchell Productions, LLC, features various guests that include, celebrities, artists, public speakers, consultants, media personality, authors, small business owners, and other influential people! Our goal: to motivate, excite and influence.

Who do I want to connect with: Women, men and Christians